CHARLEROI WOMAN SAID TO HAVE BEEN CAUGHT IN RAID

ALIBIS OF THE TWO BEING INVESTIGATED

Minions of the Law Seem to Opine There Are Discrepancies in Both Albert Mors' And Norman Selby's Alibis

WOMAN'S DEATH NOT CLEAR

Stories Are Told By a Garage Man And An Actor—New Tests Are to Be Made to Determine Mental Condition of McCoy. It Is Reported

Los Angeles, August 18.—Discrepancies in both Albert Mors' and Norman Selby's alibis in connection with the death of the beautiful Theresa Mors were being investigated today by police.

James Lawney, a garage man who told police yesterday that Mors had visited his garage early Wednesday morning, behaving in a visibly agitated manner, will be questioned further by police in an attempt to refute the story of the husband of the slain woman who said he was in bed at 11 o'clock Tuesday night.

A Hollywood actor claims to have been told of the killing of Mrs. Mors by Selby (Kid McCoy) during a wild automobile ride, shortly after midnight Tuesday about the time Mrs. Mors is believed to have met her death.

The actor's story, whose name is being withheld, was told to police by a woman last night, to whom he had related the Kid's story, thinking it the ravings of a drunken man.

According to the woman's story, McCoy met the actor a short distance from the Nottingham apartments where he lived with Mrs. Mors and where she was found dead from a bullet wound early Wednesday.

The actor, an old friend of the pugilist's, was invited to hop in the car. "I didn't realize until after I had got in, that McCoy was drunk," the man is alleged to have told the woman.

"The Kid was taking corners at a reckless rate of speed and beginning to fear the way he was driving, I asked him to let me out."

"I just killed that woman I have been living with" was McCoy's answer to his request according to his story.

HOLSTEIN FIELD DAY SUCCESSFUL

Cattle breeders and their families to the number of over 150 attended the first annual field day and outing of the Washington County Holstein club, held on the M. S. Wilson farm at Gamble Station Saturday. Following a picnic dinner, which proved a delightful social event, a number of addresses were made, the principal speaker being Prof. E. L. Anthony, of the University of West Virginia, Morgantown.

Horseshoe pitching and bathing were the main amusements and much enjoyed by the young people.

John W. Quiver, president of the club, called upon several for short talks. John A. Bell, Jr., noted Holstein breeder; Albert Craig, secretary Allegheny County club, and Prof. H. O. Henderson, of Morgantown, W. Va., responded briefly.

P. S. Brenneman, president of the Dairy Co-operative Sales company, told of conditions governing the milk market at present and pointed out the advantages which the sales company had secured. "The D. C. S. has taken care of a larger percentage of surplus milk this summer than any other market of which we have any record. At the same time the price returned to the producer has at all times compared very favorably with any of our large eastern centers," said M. Brenneman.

BELIEVED JULIA WARNOCK DEATH NATURAL CAUSES

New York, August 18.—Police are convinced today that Julia Warnock, 40-year-old girl who was found dead in her apartment Saturday night, died from natural causes, despite failure of the autopsy held yesterday to determine the precise cause of death.

Dr. Benjamin Vance, assistant medical examiner, stated she died from congestion of the viscera, but ordered a chemical analysis made of the organs.

Harry Lieberman, the girl's husband, from whom she was separated, told police she had not been in good health for some time.

Lieberman said he would take care of the arrangements for the funeral, which will be held at her former home, Independence, Mo.

Governor Pinchot To Visit Washington On Thursday, October 23

Governor Gifford Pinchot is planning to make a trip around the state during the campaign this fall to tell the people of Pennsylvania what he has been able to accomplish as governor.

His itinerary calls for a meeting in Washington at noon on Thursday, October 23. He will go to Waynesburg for a meeting at 3 p. m. and is due in Uniontown at 8 p. m. for another meeting.

Plans for the meeting at the county seat will be worked out later. The governor will spend the night of October 22 in Pittsburgh and will arrive in Washington from there the next morning.

All candidates for election this fall will be at the meeting, the place of which and the exact time will be selected later.

GAS STRIKE AT RIVERVIEW

The West Monongahela Gas company made a small strike of gas in the Gibbons well near the "Point" at Riverview. The strike was made in the Big Injun sand. Drilling will continue down to the lower strata the officials of the company stated Saturday.

The company expects to make three tests in the New Eagle district and a new well will be started very soon.

Monongahela have located a test well and are now drilling near old Robinson mine on Dry Run road. One of the biggest wells ever struck and which is still producing gas is located in that vicinity.

STEPANIAN IN THE BOROUGH

Cochman Steven Stepanian arrived in the borough from Hartford, Conn., today. He will formally assume charge of the High School Football team on Wednesday.

During his absence his itinerary included the New England states, and he saw the series in New York, where the Pirates "licked the stuffing" out of the Giants. He believes the Pirates will win the pennant. Asked about the local football team, he said that he expected to have about the same lineup as last year.

TODAY SEES FIRST MOVE TOWARDS PEACE

Paris, August 18.—Today sees the first move towards re-establishment of peace in Europe under terms of the pact of London when Franco-Belgian troops now occupying Offenbourg and Appenweir, towns of Baden, start moving out.

The towns have been occupied since February 4, 1923, when the Germans suppressed international trains running between Paris, Warsaw and Prague. The international train service was restored some time ago.

Official orders for the withdrawal of the French and Belgian troops were given Sunday only a few hours after the inter-allied conference in London had signed the protocols of the London pact. The orders call for evacuation of the troops starting today.

Premier Herriot, Socialist leader and chief French negotiator at the London conference on application of the Dawes report will return to Paris amidst the spontaneous plaudits of his faction—the Socialists. Already the radical group has planned a big celebration at the Saint Lazare station, while the city of Dieppe is preparing a municipal welcome.

The French people apparently have decided to accept the London agreements and are willing to experiment with the Dawes report for new relations toward Germany. The people are not much stirred over the evacuation of Appenweir and Offenbourg, which starts today, but are more anxious to know what the London pact will do toward living questions.

In the proposed evacuation of the Ruhr the people are asking whether the cost of living will be lowered and whether they will have cheaper or more expensive coal this winter.

It is confirmed now that the opposition is preparing to attack Herriot in that through his acceptance of the pact of London he practically agreed upon cancellation of the treaty of Versailles.

REVOKE LICENSES OF 19; BLACKLIST NINE

Harrisburg, August 18.—The State Highway department revoked the licenses of 19 persons last week and placed nine names on the blacklist. Fourteen of the 19 persons were penalized for intoxication. Seven were blacklisted for this cause. This is the lowest record of the summer in violations of the highway law.

UNITED PRESS SENDS OUT A SENSATION

Pittsburgh, Aug. 18. United Press.—Only one woman is remaining in custody as a result of the raid on Delaney's Cafe Saturday night when seventy-seven persons were arrested.

The woman is alleged to be Miss Ida Davis of Charleroi, held in $1,000 bail. She was taken away at a late hour of the evening.

According to the testimony, the police had no record of Miss Davis. This is the first time she ever was arrested. She was taken away at a table when the raid was made, yet one of three held in the unusual bail.

A forfeit of $15 was laid on nine of the women and all but three of the men. The hearing is set for Thursday. Fourteen of the men who could not put up their forfeit were given a hearing yesterday and fined $5, with the alternative of spending two days in jail.

Three men alleged to be proprietors of the cafe, Philip Ames, who it is alleged, bought the place about a week ago, "Babe" Kelly, and J. Woodward, who it is said were teaching Ames how to conduct the cafe, were held in $1,000 for a hearing Thursday.

Youths Held For Explosion At a Mine

Warrants were served on seven youths of Wireton and Monessen Saturday by Constable Mochnally charging them with malicious mischief as a result of their actions, when, it is alleged, they broke into the Schader coal mine at Wireton and caused damage estimated at several thousands of dollars. The warrants were served on Sam Spagala, Sam Etawn, John Koval, Joe Toth, Felix Yakish, Joe Stangach and Horan Tomo. It is said that other youths will be arrested.

According to the police the boys practically wrecked the mine named, and in addition broke number of pit cars, which they shoved over the tipple.

They first entered the mine, and finding a large amount of powder, they set it on fire and all had a narrow escape from death or serious injury when the explosion of the powder caused a cave-in of the mine. They finally groped their way from the mine through the smoke and the debris, but the explosion had caused the mine to be set on fire and only the prompt arrival of nearby residents saved the mine from destruction.

Those arrested are to have a hearing before Alderman J. B. Witte of Monessen this evening. It is said the boys arrested confessed, and implicated others.

200 WILL SECURE WORK WHEN MINES RESUME

Berwick, August 18.—The Scotch Valley mines near Mt. Grove, between Berwick and Bloomsburg, will soon resume operations and 200 men, who have been out of work since last December, will be given their jobs back.

Work on the new $100,000 breaker to replace the one burned during the strike last December is being rushed and it is expected the plant will be ready for the preparation of coal early in November. The new breaker will have a capacity between 600 and 800 tons of coal a day.

POLICE CALLED TO WASHINGTON TODAY

Acting Chief of Police Jack Thompson and seven other officers and a manager were called to Washington today to testify in cases of raids made on Russian and Slavish clubs in Charleroi, in which, it is alleged, booze was found.

FIGHTING TENTH IN ANNUAL REUNION

AFFAIRS OF THE FARM ARE THE ORDER OF DAY

Agricultural affairs will be the order of the day at the Coolidge farm where the president has returned for a short rest before going into the coming presidential campaign.

Representative Treadway, of Massachusetts, was to present the president and his father, Colonel John Coolidge, the naysakes as presents from Stockbridge, Mass.

With these it is anticipated the president will tackle the little patch of hay which has been left on the Coolidge hay field to try the skill of his youth or.

With this incident the president's vacation began to take on a practical political tinge. The two agents sent along on the vacation party by the Republican national committee to take advantage of all opportunities to present the president to the accompanying news writers and photographers in everyday "human" activities, planned to go into action.

Defense Attorneys To Build Arguments On Three Cardinal Points

Criminal Court Room, Chicago, Darrow. Darrow expects to finish August 18.—The defense attorneys in the Leopold-Loeb murder hearing have definitely decided to build their argument with which they hope to save Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold from the gallows for the murder of Robert Franks around these three points:

- 1.—Youth.
- 2.—Partial responsibility.
- 3.—Justice with mercy.

Clarence Darrow, chief defense attorney who will make the principal defense argument, admitted today that the state alienists, placed on the stand to help hang the youths, have given him one of his most potent weapons—the plea of youth. His own alienists had confined themselves to building up a case of diseased mentality. From the defense alienists Darrow forced the admission that the period between puberty and adolescence is the most trying time of life—when one is most apt to violate the conventions. This period was fixed by the alienists as between 11 and 21. Leopold is 20 and Loeb is 17.

The plea of partial responsibility, which Darrow will link with youth, is based on the testimony of his own alienists. Darrow hopes to convince Chief Justice John R. Caverly, who has the power to hang the youths, incarcerate them in an asylum for the criminal insane or confine them to the penitentiary that Nathan and Richard were not wholly responsible for the murder because their minds are partially diseased.

Darrow will produce records from this county to help support his plea for justice with mercy. The hazing records of Cook county do not show a single case of hazing where a minor has pleaded guilty to murder. On the other hand, they show sentences up to life terms, for youths who pleaded guilty and threw themselves on mercy of the court. Darrow was the defending attorney in one case.

States Attorney Robert E. Crowe, entered today that he would demand hanging. There is no basis for the fantastic medical defense built around the youths, he said.

Adhering to his now famous phrase Crowe told the United Press:

This is the direst murder ever committed in Cook county. They have confessed. The crime merits just one sentence—death.

Dr. Harold D. Singer, fourth of the state alienists, was subjected to further cross-examination today by

Address of Welcome Is Made By Mayor H. T. Billick, And the Response By Col. James E. Barnett—One of Features Is Old-Fashioned Army Dinner

Monongahela was host on Saturday to more than 200 Spanish-American war veterans, members of the "Fighting Tenth" Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, who held their 25th annual reunion in Monongahela. Members of Company A of the Tenth entertained the visiting veterans who represented every company.

Early Saturday morning there were indications that something was doing and countless numbers of homes were decorated for the occasion. The veterans began arriving by rail and automobile early in the morning and when registration was started at 8 o'clock at the Municipal building a score of members of the Tenth were on hand.

Prominent officers in the command and in two instances full representation of commands were registered. At 11 o'clock a meeting was held in the city building, where an address of welcome was delivered by Mayor H. T. Billick, of Monongahela, who extended the greetings of the city to the visitors.

The response was made by Col. James E. Barnett, who was second in command during the active campaign waged by the Fighting Tenth in the Philippine Islands and who succeeded to the command upon the death of the late Col. Alexander Hawkins, who served during the war but died July 12, 1899, on board the United States transport Senator, while on the way home.

During the short business session, officers were elected as follows: President, Thomas Black, of New Brighton; secretary, Nelson Donaldson, Rochester.

The 26th reunion of the Fighting Tenth will be held at New Brighton with the members of Company B as host.

Following the session the veterans 225 strong, went to Main street and forming a column, paraded through the business section headed by the Monongahela Moose band. At Second street the old warriors halted and then counter-marched to the starting point from which place autos carried the veterans to Palmer Park.

ASSESSORS TO BE BUSY VERY SOON

The county commissioners are preparing to make the triennial assessment of real estate for the tax year of 1925, the valuations of property made this fall remaining the basis for taxable purposes during the next three years. The work of assessing will begin on the first Monday of September and the commissioners are now getting in readiness the books and equipment for the assessors of the various districts. From the valuations placed on property this fall the owners have the right to appeal at times and places to be arranged by the county commissioners early in the new year.

It is believed that in some districts valuations may be increased over those that have prevailed during the past three years, owing to the general advance in the holding prices of houses, lots and farms. At this time, also, valuations are placed on coal properties, whether the same are being actively mined or not and it is believed that consideration will be given to the figures of adjoining counties and the richness of the coal veins of Washington county.

Assessors in farming districts will this year gather statistics to do with agricultural matters for the department of agriculture at Harrisburg, under a recent act of assembly. Proper blank forms will be supplied to the assessors and these, when completed, will be sent to the secretary of agriculture.

OBSSES BY ONE IDEA.

The extraordinary logic of which an editor pursued by one idea is capable upon occasion is curiously illustrated by the American-Irish Review of Worcester, Mass., which says that since 1800 England has "schooled her statesmen to look for and work for a return of the United States into the servitude of a British colony." Presumably only the Republican party wishes to prevent and all other parties desire to bring about this calamity.

One would naturally expect this Review to cherish a certain sympathy for the Ku Klux Klan because of the anti-foreign flame that burns so brightly in both, but not so. Although Democratic delegates openly fought over the issue condemning the Klan by name, finally deciding by a narrow majority to do as the other parties did and announce merely a general devotion to religious liberty, the American-Irish Review finds no difficulty in identifying the Democratic party with the Klan and even declares that "the Democrats would disfranchise all Catholics." The Review is so obsessed by its one idea as to assume that mere assertion of such abominable guilt is quite sufficient. Even the Ku Klux Klan itself, with all its faults, can be trusted to oppose the return of this country to the status of a British colony. It would not even consent for this country to become an Irish colony, and there are indications that the heated journal quoted above might be somewhat less trustworthy in this one particular.

Pinchot Ready For His Supreme Test As a Junior Lightweight

Eddie Pinchot winds up his training tomorrow for his 10-round bout at the Charleroi Baseball park tomorrow night. He will have as his opponent Chris Newton, junior lightweight champion of Canada. Eddie expects to weigh about 130 pounds for the mill, the first time he has fought as a lightweight.

Considerable interest is manifested in the scrap, as local fans are anxious to see what Pinchot can do in the lightweight role. Eddie has ever been known as a bantam, but has taken on weight in the past year, jumping from the bantamweight class to the junior lightweight class. Prospects augur for a large crowd.

In the semi-final, six rounds, Willie Davies of Roscoe, will meet Joe Shura of Pittsburgh.

The second bout of six rounds will be between Judy Moraz of Charleroi and Willie Ritchie of Donora.

The opener will see "Pug" Phillips of Fayette City, and Young Cosmo of Monessen, in a four-round argument. Seats are on sale at the Grand, Victory, and Buchanan's billiard parlors, and the prices are, general admission, $1.10; grandstand, $1.65; ringside, $2.20.

MOVE TO ORGANIZE A BOXING CLUB AT COUNTY SEAT IS ON

E. Guy (Far) Greathouse, national amateur heavyweight champion, who represented the United States in the Olympic boxing contests at Paris and who has just returned to his home at Washington he having spent the interim in New York, has announced his intention of deserting the amateur ranks for the more lucrative professional circles.

Greathouse, who was unfortunate in being stricken ill after the Olympic bouts were under way, but arose from his sick bed to enter the ring, fighting so courageously though ill that he was termed "Greatheart" by the writers witnessing the international contests, will likely make his debut in professional circles in Washington.

A movement is under way at the county seat to organize a boxing club to stage a series of shows during the coming fall and winter, and those interested propose to feature Greathouse in a number of bouts, securing opponents of a caliber to permit his gradual development and, also, foes sufficiently well known to bring him to the attention of the fistful fans of the nation.

A Self-Medicator

Francis Bacon, the philosopher, was another self-medicator. When it rained he would ride out in an open coach with bare head to receive the benefit of irrigation, as he put it.

To Prevent Accidents

Most accidents are not necessary. It isn't luck which prevents them, but just being careful. Keep your mind on the job and don't let it wander off on what you did yesterday or what you are going to do tomorrow.

Education Invaluable

Laws for the liberal education of youth are so extremely wise and useful that, to a humane and generous mind, no expense for this purpose would be thought extravagant.

Portent of a King

Rare indeed were the rings worn by Stuart partisans in England after the execution of King Charles I. Under a large diamond, in a hidden capsule, was concealed a miniature portrait of the king.

The Shiftless Boss

Nothing is more discouraging to a good man than a boss who is not on the job, and who does not know whether things are going well or badly.

In Society's Realm

These Mice Swim

New Castle, Pa.—Aquatic mice, capable of diving and swimming like porpoise, or running across the fields like other rodents, were discovered in the Fymatuning swamp, Crawford county, by a group of 35 Pittsburgh scientists who visited the swamp recently.

A woman fond of showy dress and jewelry went one afternoon to a tea, taking her small son along. She wore a diamond sunburst of which she was inordinately proud. The little boy behaved as most small boys do when refreshments were served. The next day she met a guest of the tea.

"day?" she asked.
"No," replied the woman, "but I feared he would when I saw him take the fourth sandwich."

Tested to make a close snug seal

STRETCH and "set" are the two important things a jar rubber must do if it is to make an air-tight seal.

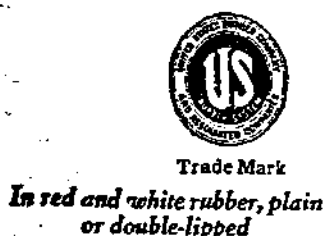

It must stretch just enough to slip easily over the neck of the jar and snap back to its original size. Then it must be able to "set", to grip firmly the neck of the jar. Only if the rubber will "set" perfectly can you be sure of a safe snug seal for your pack. "U.S." Jar Rubbers come to you thoroughly tested for stretch and "set." They are made by the United States Rubber Company—largest rubber organization in the world—to meet every demand of modern canning.

DR. FRANK SPEAKS AT CHAUTAUQUA

Chautauqua, New York, Aug. 15.
My Friend, Editor O'Kane:

Thinking perhaps you and your readers would be interested in the doings of the parent Chautauqua here in New York, I will take the time to give you a short synopsis of one of the greatest address delivered on this renowned platform this year.

It was on Wednesday, July 24, a day known as "Recognition Day," when Dr. Glenn Frank, editor of the Century Magazine, chose as the subject of his presentation, "The Probable Outlook for Western Civilization." Three answers have been made to the question, said the speaker, viz:

First. The writers of whom Dean Inge is an exponent say: that we are on the way to a new Dark Age; that civilization is doomed.

Second. Economists say that this machine age will destroy itself.

Third. Biologists see the race degenerating.

Fourth. Administrators find the world grown too complicated.

Fifth. Historians point to the rhythm of birth, growth, and death in the world history; and maintain that we are entering the period of decline.

Sixth. Politicians fear the growth of democracy.

Seventh. Moralists are offended by the present generation.

All of the above have produced a new literature of despair, supporting their views with logic and reason.

Second. The second view is best represented by H. G. Wells, who maintains that the world is entering a period of frivolity and humor.

Wary of the serious life, we are longing for fun. Old foundations are being shaken; old ideas discredited.

We may run to the past, and especially is this tendency shown in our politics; witness the state papers of the late President Harding, and President Coolidge.

"See things in their true proportion," cried the speaker. "Launder is welcome, but frivolity is fatal."

Third. The third possibility is that western civilization is going into a rebirth or an awakening.

Dr. Frank casts his lot with these, not because the literature of despair is groundless, for it is not.

Not because it is groundless, for it is not. Not because the renaissance will be seen when it does come.

But I cast my lot with the last group, because the raw materials for a new age lie all about us. We have the great discoveries gathered from all the fields of human endeavor.

"Our first act," declared Dr. Frank "is to recognize that all life is one piece; we must discover the spiritual unity of human affairs. We need a revival of religion, not a religious revival. We need a great personality to fire the western world."

Roosevelt was chosen as the typical American.

Rev. John R. Burson.

Septuagint

The Septuagint is a Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament, so called because traditionally believed to have been made by 70—or, more strictly, 72—Jews in 72 days, by order of Ptolemy Philadelphus (284-247 B. C.). Critics, however, declare it to be the work, not only of different hands, but also of different times. It probably made its appearance at Alexandria, Egypt, about 260 B. C.

First Mother's Day

Mother's day, now commonly observed throughout the United States, was first generally revived in 1910. It dates back into the Sixteenth century in English church history, when it was called Mothering Sunday, and celebrated the fourth Sunday in Lent, by persons living away from home, especially young men and women, who were allowed the day free to return to their parents with gifts.

Determination

This is an age of competition. If you want anything you must go after it, not in a half-hearted way, but with a determination that will brook no interference. The one thing that you may as well understand right in the beginning is that you will get no more than you are willing to pay for, but you can have almost anything you want, when you want it bad enough. —A. E. Stewart.

Get Busy

Get busy! Today, not tomorrow, is the accepted time. If you would be a success, be one. No one is stopping you. Your hands and feet are not tied. You need not wait till some one drives up in a 40-horse power automobile and invites you to ride with him to fame and glory. Hard work and a little common sense will do the trick. Get busy.
